ABOUT ME

I'm a curious and committed Junior Software Developer with a genuine interest in technology and problem-solving. Since moving to the Netherlands in 2021, I've embraced every opportunity to learn from completing the HackYourFuture bootcamp to joining the IT Accelerator Program at Motopp.

With over 6 years of experience as an accountant, I developed strong skills in structure, precision, and analytical thinking. This background helps me approach software development challenges with clarity and responsibility.

I enjoy working in collaborative teams and communicating comfortably in both English and Dutch.
